

Central Records Criminal Record Check Request

This form is only for individuals and background investigators requesting a criminal record check in person at our records office location. If you live outside the immediate area the criminal record check request must be in a formal notarized letter to include the information in section 1 & 2 with a copy of a valid driver's license or passport. International request must include certification by the US embassy or consulate.

Please note that criminal record checks only disclose arrests made by our university police officers. Further inquiry can be made with the city, county, or state police localities.

Form Instructions:

- Section 1: list the information of the person whom the criminal record check is on.
- Section 2: list the information of the person making the request.
- Section 3: filled out by the records office clerk.

The original form will be kept on file, and a copy will be provided to you. For further assistance please call (703)993-2876
